Summary

This decision considers whether the Scottish Ministers (the Ministers) complied with the technical requirements of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA) in responding to an information request made by Mr Ferguson on 21 January 2013.

Background

1. On 21 January 2013, Mr Ferguson wrote to the Ministers requesting certain specified information.
2. Mr Ferguson received no response to his request.
3. On 13 March 2013, Mr Ferguson wrote to the Ministers, requesting a review in respect of their failure to respond.
4. Mr Ferguson did not receive a response to his requirement for review and, on 29 April 2013, wrote to the Commissioner's Office, stating that he was dissatisfied with that failure and applying to the Commissioner for a decision in terms of section 47(1) of FOISA.
5. The application was validated by establishing that Mr Ferguson had made a request for information to a Scottish public authority and had applied to the Commissioner for a decision only after asking the authority to review its response to that request. The case was then allocated to an investigating officer.

Investigation

6. On 23 May 2013, the Ministers were notified in writing that an application had been received from Mr Ferguson and were invited to comment on the application.
7. The Ministers responded on 13 June 2013, providing the Commissioner with a copy of their response to Mr Ferguson's requirement for review. Mr Ferguson confirmed that he had received the response.

Commissioner's analysis and findings

8. Section 10(1) of FOISA gives Scottish public authorities a maximum of 20 working days following the date of receipt of the request to comply with a request for information, subject to certain exceptions which are not relevant in this case.
9. Since the Ministers did not provide a response to Mr Ferguson's request for information within 20 working days, the Commissioner finds that they failed to comply with section 10(1) of FOISA.
10. Section 21(1) of FOISA gives Scottish public authorities a maximum of 20 working days following the date of receipt of the requirement to comply with a requirement for review, subject to certain exceptions which are not relevant in this case.
11. Since the Ministers did not provide a response to Mr Ferguson's requirement for review within 20 working days, the Commissioner finds that they failed to comply with section 21(1) of FOISA.
12. Given that the Ministers have now responded to Mr Ferguson's requirement for review, the Commissioner does not require them to take any further action in this case, in response to Mr Ferguson's application.

DECISION

The Commissioner finds that the Scottish Ministers (the Ministers) failed to comply with Part 1 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA), by failing to respond to Mr Ferguson's request for information and requirement for review within the respective timescales laid down by sections 10(1) and 21(1) of FOISA.

Given that the Ministers have now responded to Mr Ferguson's requirement for review, the Commissioner does not require them to take any action in respect of these failures, in response to Mr Ferguson's application.

Appeal

Should either Mr Ferguson or the Scottish Ministers wish to appeal against this decision, there is an appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only. Any such appeal must be made within 42 days after the date of intimation of this decision.
